Revenue review | Q2 2026

Synthetic data. Independent CLI reference; not an application or LLM result.

Revenue grew; margin softened

Net revenue rose 8.66% and contribution increased $3,600. Contribution margin fell 0.54 percentage points. Contribution excludes fixed costs, financing and taxes.

Metric	Q1 2026	Q2 2026	Change
Orders	1,100	1,200	+100
Net revenue	$127,000	$138,000	+8.66%
Contribution	$50,100	$53,700	+$3,600
Contribution margin	39.45%	38.91%	-0.54 pp
Refund dollar ratio	3.79%	4.17%	+0.38 pp

North / Partner led the gain

Segment	Q1 net revenue	Q2 net revenue	Change
North / Direct	$46,000	$52,200	+$6,200
North / Partner	$35,000	$42,000	+$7,000
South / Direct	$29,000	$24,000	-$5,000
South / Partner	$17,000	$19,800	+$2,800

The four segment changes reconcile to +$11,000. South / Direct is the only decline: -17.24% net revenue, with orders down from 250 to 220 and its refund-dollar ratio rising from 3.33% to 9.09%.

Investigate before assigning a cause

Request South / Direct refund reasons and order-level sales detail. These aggregates do not establish churn, seasonality or why orders fell. No target or prior-year comparison is supplied.

Sources: synthetic revenue.csv and metric-definitions.md in examples/community/revenue-review/. Calculations: calculate.py; expected-results.md. Values rounded only for display.